PEMBROKE LADY

Weds a St. Louis Drummer
at Hotel Latham.

Mr. Walton Mannen, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Carrie Rawlins, of Pembroke, were married yesterday afternoon at three o'clock at Hotel Latham, Rev. W. E. Mitchell, of Pembroke, officiating. Mr. Mannen is a traveling representative of a St.
Louis house. He and his bride left last night for St. Louis.

DRAKE AND WOODRUFF

Convicted of Killing Officer

R. H. Coffey Pardoned.

GUS LYONS RETRACTS.

They Have Served Three Years of a Life Sentence in Prison.

John Woodruff and Francis Drake were pardoned last Tuesday by Gov.
Beckham.

It will be remembered that these men, after many delays, were sentenced to the penitentiary for life by the Christian Circuit Court at the February term in 1903, charged with the murder of Deputy Sheriff R. H.
Coffey during the mining trouble at Empire, about five years ago.

One Guy Lyons, alias Reynolds, was arrested with them at the same time. He turned State's evidence and it was partly upon his testimony that Woodruff and Drake were convicted.

Since that time Guy Lyons has been arrested in Logan county, tried, convicted and sentenced to be hung, along with others, for committing an outrage upon the person of Miss Marie Gladder. Now that he sees that he is going to die for this crime, he confesses that he killed Sheriff Coffey, and that he swore lies in order to lay the blame on Woodruff and Drake.

The Governor's pardon is based upon the recent statement of Lyons.

Moves to Guthrie.

The Rev. Israel G. Joiner, of Bennettstown, one of the oldest and most widely known ministers in the county, has moved with his family from his old homestead near Bennettstown to Guthrie, where they will make their home in the future. Rev. Joiner has been a resident of this county for half a century. Prof. R. T. Joiner and wife accompanied Rev. Joiner to Guthrie, and the family will make their home with Mr. Joiner's older son, who has been engaged in the grocery business there for several years.

Arc Lights.

The City Light Co. has received a new machine and turned on the arc lights as a test last night. Should the machine do what is expected, another circuit will be turned on tonight. The Northern circuit was tested last night.

Xmas Goods.

Our stock of Holiday Goods is much larger and more varied than ever before, consisting of the most exquisite line of

Imported Fancy China, Bisque Figures and Statuary French and German China Dinner
Ware, Etc.

Washstand Sets, Glassware,
Lamps, Carving Sets, Silver Plated ware of all kinds, consisting of knives, forks, spoons, sugar shells, nut sets, chafing dishes, etc. Also a nice line of pocket cutlery, razors, brass fire sets, coal vases and many other useful as well as ornamental articles. Don't make your purchases before seeing our stock.

Very Respectfully,

W. A. PPOOL & SON.

A GAME OF SCARE

Sprung On Box Renters By
P. O. Department.

The many persons who pay rent at the post office were not a little surprised the middle of last week by finding in their boxes a blue card on which appeared the familiar words,
"Box Rent Due." As they had prepaid the present quarter's rent they could not imagine why such an order had been promulgated. An inquiry to the deputy postmaster elicited the information that orders had come from headquarters to collect box rent for the new quarter before the expiration of the old one.
We don't know how many hundreds of thousands of post offices Uncle Sam has, but we do know that if every box renter in the United States would pay his 50 cents
two weeks in advance the Government would have the use of a large sum of money two weeks for nothing at the expense of the people.

In other words, people are not to have the usual ten days' grace to pay their little fifty cents per quarter for their own convenience, but more for the convenience of the men in the post office, and if you do not pay up the last day of December your box will be declared vacant.

But as there is a way to evade any law so is there a way to evade post office orders and get a box and hold your money to the last moment.

If you have to give up your box on January first apply for another, pay your 50 cents and you will have a rest for another three months.

While the people are trusting your Uncle Samuel to keep good his bargain for three months, it looks very much like the Postmaster-General has but little confidence in the people that pay for the running of the Department. It looks like the P. M.
G. wants to make a "little rep." by his new departure, and he must imagine he is a second Roosevelt.

APPOINTMENTS

Made to State Normal School Saturday.

County Superintendent of Public Schools, W. E. Gray, has made the following select on for this county to attend the State Normal School, established by the last legislature. The appointments were made last Saturday:

Misses Mary L. Atkins, Annie
Bruff, Etta J. Bruff, Florence Gray,
Lola Goodwin, Addie Fuller, Susie
Goode, Minnie Brame, Mary Seargent, and Mr. Marion Rawls.

Loose Floor Sale.

Tobacco on the loose floor is selling fast and at active prices. We quote the largest sale of the season:

Trash$4.25 to $4.50
Low lugs4.50 to 5.00
Common lugs5.00 to 5.50
Medium lugs5.50 to 6.00
Low leaf5.00 to 7.00
Common leaf7.00 to 8.25
Medium leaf8.50 to 9.50

If you will send a real good crop of tobacco to the loose floor, you will get $1.00 per 100 more than you can get anywhere else. I haven't offered any fine tobacco and have to quote prices on such as I sell, and you see I have not been able to get a good crop on my floor. If you want to make money come on.
H. H. ABERNATHY.

HUSBAND AND WIFE

Both Pass Away Within One Week.

Mrs. Bagby, widow of A. C. Bag-by who died near Garrettsburg on the 9th inst., passed away Saturday night.
She was ill when her husband died, and survived him only one week. The body was interred by the side of that of Mr. Bagby yesterday afternoon.

Anarchists Beware.

Hopkinsville has taken the right step in the matter of protecting the interest of the town and county.
The tobacco factories and other property is to be protected and in the event an attempt is made to burn or destroy property, the attempt will be met with powder and ball.
Madisonville Graphic.

POLICE RAID

A Crap Game and Pull a Dozen Offenders.

The officers' dream of toasting their shins by the fire during a lull in a continuous season of law observance was dissipated Saturday, and they came forth from their resting place (if they ever have one) with a determination to pull and straighten out any one who was going wrong. Several who were tanking up gradually finally got into the condition that requires both sides of a side-walk to enable them to get from one part of town to another, but the blue-coats, being on the qui vive, kindly took them in out of the disagreeable weather. Then half-a-dozen negroes had found a sequestered nook where they imagined they could indulge their passion for gambling in the harmless, to them, way of shooting craps. But the officers got on to their little game and took them in also. By this time the lock-up was beginning to be crowded.

But like a crowded street car, there is always room for one more when the Hopkinsville police are "out for bear," and a couple of "cussers" were also added to the number who thought the situation too much crowded for comfort. It was made more so for them by the ushering in of a fellow for breach of the peace and another for carrying a concealed deadly weapon. In all there were 18 arrests from Saturday morning to Sunday—9 drunks, 6 gamblers, 2 cussers and 1 who thought he might need a gun to protect himself in an impending scrimmage.

It may not be pleasant news to any others who may be meditating a "little fun" forbidden by statute or ordinance that the officers from now until the close of the year, are going to be unusually vigilant and arrest is sure to follow any breach of the laws of the city or state.

"COMMODORE" BRAIN,

Well Known Here, Dies at Tampa, Fla.

John C. Brain, who spent some time in Hopkinsville a few years ago, died last week at Tampa Fla. While here he was known as "Commodore" Brain and claimed to have served in the confederate navy during the civil war. He carried numerous scars, which he proudly exhibited as evidence of his having been in the "thickest of the fight" on numerous occasions, one of them in his forehead being sufficiently large and deep to hide an English sparrow. Brain went from here to Owensboro and from there he went South. Nothing more was heard of him until the news of his death reached the city.

Mr. Dooley's New Observations.

In the language of a friend "Dooey is gittin' gayer and wiser all th' time." He has never written so brilliantly as in the new series of Dooley articles which are now appearing in The Chicago Sunday Record-Herald. His views on "The Young Friend Count Dooley's Love Affairs," "The President's Activities" and other timely s-rations in the new series are the choicest things the author has ever offered his thousands of admirers, full of witty sayings which will be quoted for years to come. These "Dooley" articles, each complete in itself, will appear in successive Sunday issues of The Record-Herald.

FACTS ARE STUBBORN.

IF HOPKINSVILLE PEOPLE ARE NOT CONVINCED BY LODAL IT'S MORE THAN OTHER PEOPLE.

Facts are stubborn.
Some may be disputed,
None can be disputed.

proof.
Has to stand the test of investigation.

Or it drifts to the realm of doubt.

The closer the scrutiny the more convincing the results.

A Hopkinsville citizen speaks
here.

Speaks from experience and conviction:

Miss L. A. Heister, 212 East 14th Street, says: "To walk for any distance or to over-exert myself in any way intensified the aching in my back from which I was for a long time a continual sufferer, and if I caught cold it seemed to settle in the same region and made me most miserable. When rising in the morning I felt stiff and sore and often found it difficult to dress myself. Another symptom of my complaint was a weakness of the kidneys which annoyed and distressed me beyond words. I doctored but found little if any relief until I tried Doan's Kidney Pills which had been strongly recommended to me and which procured. They did me a vast amount of good. The pain in my back ceased, the secretions were regulated and my health was improved generally."

Just a Minute.
The clouds are floating in the sky-- There'll be some more, too, by and by.
The birds have come to warmer climes--
I'm glad, because it helps me rhyme!
The coal man--No, I'll spare you that.
Perhaps your wife, too, needs a hat!
The brook flows gently to the sea--
It must flow that way, don't you see?
The leaves are floating with the tide--
They're tied to nothing, I'll confide.
The bride to be is making clothes--
She needs 'em badly, goodness knows!
The office square accounts draws near--
I'm shy about one square, I fear!
I need a new fall overcoat--
Excuse me, sir, is that your boat?
Ah, well, I'll write a line or two
And get another one quite new.
Oh, no--not verse, a line with ink.
That always makes my banker think!
He thinks I've overdrawn my pile--
I do it every little while!
And then I mope around some day
And put in all my weekly pay!
I'm making art a week these days--
I tell you what, this "watin' pays!"
At times I get five cents a line--
Oh, how you boys, I've got the rime.
Some day, before I hit the beach,
I'll write a piece of thrilling verse
An' trade it for a silver mine--
You bet! Won't that be pretty fine?
I can't today--Now, don't you rave--
I'm going out to get a shave!
My face feels like a shagbark tree--
I've got to get it planned, you see.
"Shampoo" you say? "Your stuff is trash!"
Well, well! Great Scott, but you are brash!
I thought you liked the simple stuff.
This "true or nature" kind of stuff.
One couldn't ask for more--
There's only one thing that I miss:
It has no "New York Store."

Errata.
The suburb was "I live is well."
One shouldn't ask for more--
There's only one thing that I miss:
It has no "New York Store."

WOMAN.

She's slight and fair and somewhat frail,
She's delicately made.
She knows that some day she will catch
Her death of cold, and fade!

She wonders why she sneezes and When to a ball she goes
And wears the smile that won't come off
With décollete cut clothes.

She sails about the shopping streets
On shopping duties meet,
While on her shoes are paper soles--
All sopping are her feet!

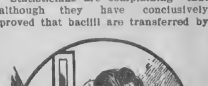

She leans across the back yard fence
And swaps her recipes.
Talks "dub" and gossip, I'm afraid,
In weather made to freeze.

The West wind whips her aiken hair,
And chills her ankles trim.
The North wind awakes her in the chest
And numbs her with a vim.

Yet still she stands there blue with chill
And hears the latest tale.
Then wonders how she caught that cold
And why she's thin and frail!

O woman, woman, please wake up;
O yes, so thin and pale.
Quit drowsing in your coffin lid
Each day another nail!

Statisticians are complaining that although they have conclusively fact that the American people are not only affectionate, but over-ke.

A Matter of Standard.

BY JESSE STRONG.

(Copyright, 1906, by Daily Story Pub. Co.) Bill Mapes did not belong to the "uplift." Far from it. Indeed Mapes was one of the citizens of the semi-world against whom the very strongest anathema of the better classes were directed.

Nor was Mapes on cordial terms with the police. In fact he would go to some considerable pains to avoid social intercourse with the guardians of the law. And by the same token the blue-coats would move rather faster than usual to enjoy the pleasure of Mapes society. But then Bill had an innate prejudice against blue-coats and brass-buttons and stars and clubs and all that sort of thing. Perhaps he was not wholly responsible because the prejudice may have been inherited.

It is to be recalled that his father "Flug" Mapes was constitutionally opposed to the police before his unhappy father took off the end of a rope in a quiet jailyard on one memorable day after the society of the blue-coats had been thrust upon him in a most shameful manner.

It is also a matter of history that the gentlemanly wearers of the blue gave a great sigh of relief upon this occasion and clung to their hats, eschewing any and all forms of unwelcome manner, in the paternal footsteps. From all of which it may be deduced that Bill Mapes lived and breathed and had his being without the law of the land and that he would not have been a welcome visitor at your home at the witching hour of midnight.

Yes, gentle reader, you have guessed right; Bill Mapes was a burglar, a thief, a crook and earned his bread by appropriating the product of the sweat of the other fellow's brow.

And yet Mapes was not a bad sight to look upon. He was a well-built, sturdy, young fellow, handsome, splendid strength with marked grace of action. His features were rather well-formed and his eyes clear and blue and laughing. He was not a fearful object to look upon—excepting when desperate or angry, and then he was a thunderbolt of action and of passion.

It was inevitable, of course, that Mapes should occasionally be the guest of the police, but despite all their most energetic invitations he had successfully maintained his mossy and swayed any considerable strain upon their hospitality.

Upon his every appearance in the police court, however, there had appeared also a most charming feminine visitor—a delicate, modest, brown-eyed girl whose beauty won all hearts and whose tears moved the sternest police justice to sympathy. She was a mystery to the police court and inspired more interest than the prisoner in whom she seemed to have such deep interest, so to concern.

And free discussion it was duly decided that she was a settlement worker or something of other that sort who was grieved over Bill Mapes' soul and was trying to save him.

And while they berated him as a dog they all bowed before the dainty brown-eyed divinity.

Now it must be evident to the reader at this point that Bill Mapes was not an idealist, nor a leading citizen, nor a pillar of society, nor anything of that sort, but this simple tale is written to show that every fellow has his own standards and his own ideas.

One soft summer evening Mapes appeared at "Brown's Triangle," a rather bad place in a very bad neighborhood—a spot which policemen avoided when on a forenoon beat and a section most professionally berated by the Anti-Crime society. He did not enter the flat-iron shaped saloon but going into one of the darkest streets, emitted a shrill whistle. Presently a curtain upstairs was cautiously pulled and a face peered forth. Upon a further signal the curtain dropped and a moment later a street-door opened and Bill faced his brown-eyed divinity of the police court. Lo and behold, far from being a settlement worker she was only the daughter of the Brown, the keeper of the notorious "Brown's Triangle" where, according to the police, more robberies had been planned than in any other spot in the city.

"Howdy, Nan," said Mapes in a voice somewhat strained with embarrassment and taking the girl's extended hands awkwardly. "Nice evening?" "Nice evening," "Nice evening," she exclaimed the girl beaming upon him with the glorious love-light, which, after all, is all there is in life.

Now, but I'm here," he responded, comfortably.

There were some moments of silence during which Bill's reaching up accumulated the slender hand of the girl. A busy policeman was derided by and Bill was scarcely quick than the girl to shrink into the shadows.

"I—him, I'll get his job," grunted Mapes. "If you don't, dad," replied the girl. "I got his number—4714. I know him."

"Say, Nan, what'd y' say to get married, huh?" a house and settlin' down?"

This very bravely said but in a voice betraying love, mystery and surrender.

Nan looked him over most absently. "What'd y' mean, Bill?" she asked, good-naturedly.

"Nan," he said leaning toward her and placing his arms half way around her "I've got the game beat. Come on and let's live like nine-time sports."

"How'd y' do it, Bill?" she asked, quietly.

"Look here, gal," he replied, soberly but passionately. "I've been tryin' to get things right for you and me—but it's been hard. Now let's see. I happened onto a most exclusive party of gents—the real kind. I wasn't exactly invited you know—but just happened through the window. Gee, but de sparkers were in the cuffs on de tables and de shirts in de closet."

"Did y' get 'em?" asked the girl leaning forward eagerly.

"Naw," replied Mapes leaning back comfortably. "I heard somethin' dat's worth more'n all de sparkers I ever seen."

"Yes," encouraged the girl. Mapes settled himself comfortably in the doorway. "Well," he said with provoking deliberation, "there was a couple of swell takin' right in front of me before I broke past de curtains."

"Well," encouraged the girl with shining eyes.

"Well," responded Mapes, "I had to quit and I had to listen. Gee, but it was fine listenin'."

"Well," interrupted the girl. "It was old Strauding, de president of de Cincinnati Avenue bank and Knute Augusten, de swell young teller—but dey was talkin' brass tacks for sure."

"Well," said the girl said. "Well," responded the man with a show of irritability. "Well," just as dey were talkin' dey went to bust de bank day after to-morrow an' get away with $200,000 or $300,000. I hear all about it."

"What did y' say?" asked the girl. "What did I do?" he replied, scornfully. "I sneaked away. There's a bigger game in this dan to pinch a few dollars, I guess," and Mapes laughed scornfully. "If I don't get our house and lot and all de trimmings and a few thousand in de bank on my side, I guess—well, I ain't Bill Mapes—dat's all."

There was a long silence. "Bill," the girl said, presently in a meek, sweet voice, "ain't this de bank that all de people on de avenue have their savings?"

"Of course," replied Bill. "And they are all goin' to lose their savings," pursued the girl. Bill scratched his head savagely.

"I suppose so," he said. "There's old Simuel," said the girl, remindingly. "He's saved pennies for 40 years for Polly—and she's goin' to lose it."

"Yes," replied Bill, sentimentally. "And all these poor people and all these strugglin' business men are goin' to lose it," she asked.

"What de hell Bill do you and I care?" snarled Bill. "We will get ours and not take a chance on de pen."

"Bill," said the girl, taking both his hands in hers. "Can you let this happen to all our people on de avenue? Can you, Bill, can you?"

"Why, Nan," he stammered, "I thought you said you wouldn't marry me until I had a home paid for and a bank account."

"Yes, Bill," she replied. "But not with the blood money of our own people."

The man put his head in his hands for long minutes. Finally he said: "Nan, you are de real thing. I am goin' to cough up what I know to de states attorney. De'll save our people. But, and his voice grew hopeless. 'I don't know how I'm goin' to make good for you.'"

The girl flung her arms around his neck.

"Bill, Bill," she cried, "I will marry you to-night. I will go with you anywhere and help you all I can—because you are on de square—and because I love you."

"Blue Stockings." The term "blue stockings" is given to learned and literary ladies who display their acquirements in a pedantic manner. It is derived from a literary circle formed in London about the year 1750. A distinguished member of the society was a certain Mr. Stillingfleet, who was in the habit of wearing blue stockings—knee breeches and stockings were then the characteristic dress of gentlemen—and all the ladies connected with it voted that he should be the only male creature admitted to their society.

The story getting abroad, the literary society was called the Blue Stocking society, and finally literary and learned women like Mrs. Chepene, Mrs. Carpenter and Miss Martineau were called "blue stockings."

Record Sentence for Errors. A grammarian was talking about grammatical slips that, through their magnitude, made them worthy of record. It is one sentence, he said, "That has lived for a hundred years on account of its tremendous incorrectness. In this sentence every word, every single word, is ungrammatical."

"The sentence was spoken by a little girl in a sheep pasture. Looking at the flocks, she said to the shepherd, 'Is them sheeps yours?'"

"This sentence holds the record in its class."

ATTRACTIVE LITTLE FROCK.

Pattern No. 5691.—The gimpette effects are always popular for little girls, deservedly so, for no style is more girlish and becoming. This one is quite novel in treatment and is adapted to a variety of materials. As shown it is made of red cashmere. The waist closes in the back and the front fullness is gathered into a narrow yoke. Pretty shaped shoulder straps are a feature of the mode, they are fastened to front and back by large buttons. Cashmere, challis, albatross, linen and pique are all suitable for development. For a girl of eight years, two and three-quarter yards of 36-inch material will be required for the dress and one and five-eighths yards for the gimpette. Sizes for 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12 years.

This pattern will be sent to you on receipt of 10 cents. Address all orders to the Pattern Department of this paper. Be sure to give size and number of pattern wanted. For convenience, write your order on the following coupon:

PRACTICAL APRON.

Pattern No. 5665.—A useful apron of generous, house-wisely ease, designed to protect the entire dress, is here pictured in a development of black and white figured percale. The back is held in position by a strap of the material, that is buttoned to the front at the waistline. A pocket is a useful addition, that may be appreciated by the wearer, although it may be omitted if desired. Gingham, denim, Holland and cambric are all suitable for the making, and finishing braid or narrow edging may be used for trimming. The medium size will require three and seven-eighths yards of material 36 inches wide. Sizes for small, medium and large.

This pattern will be sent to you on receipt of 10 cents. Address all orders to the Pattern Department of this paper. Be sure to give size and number of pattern wanted. For convenience, write your order on the following coupon:

JAMESTOWN

EXPOSITION.

Gates to be Closed on Sundays.

The Jamestown Exposition, to be held next year on the shores of Hampton Roads, near Norfolk, Va., will not be open on Sundays. This important question was definitely settled nearly a year before the date for opening, which is April 26, 1907. This removes a problem which has caused much vexation in connection with several former expositions.

WINDING TRAIL.

The decision to close the gates of the exposition on Sunday was reached by the board of governors at a meeting, the board upon the occasion recommending to the directors that the gates be closed during Sundays. It was resolved "that this action is the result of careful thought and consideration for every interest involved," etc. Thus it will be seen that the exposition management itself favored Sunday closing, and the signing of the agreement between the officials and the Secretary and Treasury, citing the Sunday agreement as a condition to the appropriation of government funds for the exposition, was merely formal.

Keep In Good Health.

There are many thousands of people all over the world who can attribute their good health to taking one or two Brandreth's Pills every night. These pills cleanse the stomach and bowels, stimulate the kidneys and liver and purify the blood. They are the same fine laxative tonic pill your grandparents used, and being purely vegetable they are adapted to children and old people, as well as to those in the vigor of manhood and womanhood.

Brandreth's Pills have been in use for over a century and can be obtained in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar-coated.

AMUSEMENTS.

North Bros., comedians opened to good business last night, this being their initial performance in Hopkinsville. They made a good impression on the people. The company is composed of some of the best talent the country affords. The opening bill, "A Prince of Gamblers," is one of the nicest comedy dramas that has been seen in Hopkinsville for some time. Mr. Harry Chapin North made a decided hit as "Jack Diamond." The lady orchestra rendered some very fine selections. "An American Lady" is the bill for tonight. Prices: 10, 20 and 30c.

$200,000

Will Be Paid Out For Tobacco Before the Year Ends.

In a talk with Mr. Geo. C. Long Thursday about the great quantity of loose tobacco being delivered now, he said that if the seasonal weather continues $200,000 worth of tobacco would be delivered and paid for before the first of next year. He said that fully $100,000 has already been paid out by the different banks, and at the present rate the $200,000 worth would be easily reached under favorable weather conditions. Farmers are on the road during the night and many of them reach the city and take up their position at the warehouses long before daylight.

The advantages of delivering unpriized tobacco are great. A man with a small crop can deliver it and get his money on the spot. There is no need for him to wait and prize his product and bring it to town and wait again until a buyer comes along to take it. The loose buyers want his tobacco and will pay him a good price for it, and the crop is disposed of just like a load of corn or anything else brought in from the farm. Of course the extensive grower can do otherwise if he wants to. Money ought to be very plentiful with the farmers now and merchants are pleased with the way in which the farmers have been patronizing them. Lots of money means "lots of Christmas."

Deadly Serpent Bites.

Often The Kidneys Are

Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood. It used to be considered that only urinary and blood diseases were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help on the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone. If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Greenhouse Opening.

You have often heard of Bargain Sales in the dry goods and clothing lines, but very few cut sales in the Flower line. From Thursday on Metcalfe's new Enterprise greenhouse will be wide open to the public and we want you to come and see the most up-to-date establishments in the South. It makes no difference whether you want to buy or not. We want you to see what we have and then tell your friends of it.

We are going to offer some exceptional values in growing pot plants and you will see ferns that will be worth five dollars in six months, and many as low as 25 and 35c that will be worth three times the money in a short while.

We have over 3,000 ferns, besides many blooming plants for you to select from, and as for cut flowers, all we ask is for you to see our fine display in this line, all fresh cuttings. We certainly do not want the week to pass without every lady in Hopkinsville visiting our establishment and enjoying seeing the beauties which we have labored to produce. All invited. Respectfully yours,

T. L. METCALFE,
Lauderer-Florist.

Public Sale.

Sale to commence at 10 o'clock a. m. R. F. RAVES.

HOG CHOLERA

The Problem of a Cure is Now Solved.

The much dreaded disease, hog cholera, has lost its terror to those who are posted on modern methods of treating the disease. It is now a curable disease. Any practical farmer who will follow the instructions given by the manufacturers can stop the worst outbreak of disease that ever came and save almost every hog able to take the treatment and restore the herd to thrift in a few days time.

The Snoddy Remedy, manufactured by Dr. J. H. Snoddy Remedy Co., of Alton, Ill., has been used in this country and has proven itself a positive cure for the much dreaded disease. It is now on sale in Hopkinsville by the Pharmacy Hardware Co., Inc., who will furnish any farmer or hog raiser one of Snoddy's books on hog cholera, free of charge. The book is a full and complete guide for all directions for curing hog cholera is fully explained in this little booklet. Every farmer should have one. They are free, and it is hoped that the people will study up on this new method of treating the disease so they can feel safe from the disease when raising hogs and also so they will understand how to keep the cholera out of this country. The remedy is also on sale by E. W. Stegar & Dickson, down at Madisonville, who will also furnish the farmer a copy of Snoddy's book on hog cholera, who will call there for it.

This remedy is the greatest worm remedy and thrift producer for hogs there is on the market. The extra money they will save from its effects will return the farmer an average of $5 in this extra gain for every dollar's worth of the medicine he uses properly and in the right. Hence, the remedy is not an expense to a farmer but it is a profitable investment, and one that pays a greater profit than anything else on the farm the same amount of money can be invested into.

The remedy is certain in its action when properly used. It is impossible for a cholera germ or worm of any kind to live in a hog while that hog is under the influence of this remedy. The remedy will destroy every worm or germ of this kind and the hog will get well in a short while and be as thrifty as he ever was.

There are many imitations of this remedy being put out, and the farmer must be careful that he does not buy an imitation of the remedy. The public will know the genuine Snoddy Remedy by its having Dr. Snoddy's picture in every label. If a medicine for hog cholera is offered you that is claimed to be the Snoddy Remedy and does not have Dr. Snoddy's picture on the label, refuse it, because it is not genuine without the picture. Dr. J. H. Snoddy is the one and only owner of the remedy and no one else. I. H. Snoddy Remedy Co., is the only one to be trusted. Particulars call on the Pharmacy Hardware Co., Incorporated, at Alton, Ill., or E. W. Stegar & Dickson, Madisonville, Ky. The remedy is manufactured by Dr. J. H. Snoddy Co., Alton, Ill.

Hopkinsville's Leading

CLOSED WITH 104 ADDITIONS.

The revival at the Baptist church closed Sunday night, after breaking all records of revivals in the church. The meeting continued four weeks with only a rest of one day, last Saturday.

Sunday was another strenuous day with the pastor, Dr. Jenkins. Services were held at sunrise, at 10 o'clock following the Sunday School service, at 11 o'clock, at 3 o'clock to ladies only and again at night when the closing meeting was held.

Since last report 18 persons have joined the church—3 Friday night, 10 Sunday morning, 2 Sunday afternoon and 3 Sunday night. The total was 104 for the meeting. Of these 33 were by letter and 71 by experience. Already 55 have been baptized and the other 16 will be immersed to-morrow night.

Dr. Jenkins came here a month ago, right out of two meetings in close succession and immediately began the wonderful revival, preaching more than 60 sermons, besides holding many special services. He has been preaching daily for more than two months and yet his last discourse was one of the best and strongest appeals he has made to sinners. His powers and resources as an evangelist are wonderful.

There will be no more services until Wednesday night, which is the regular prayer-meeting night.

Below we give the names of those who have joined by letter and experience:

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Made from Pure Grape Cream of Tartar

The only excuse for buying anything but a Pure Grape Cream of Tartar Baking Powder is to save a few cents in price.

ROYAL costs you a few cents more per can than Alum or Phosphate of Lime powders, but it is worth far more than the difference to keep your biscuits, cakes and pastry free from the injurious effects of these cheapening substitutes.

Continued use of Alum means permanent injury to health.

Avoid Alum Ailments—Say plainly ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Points About People.

KEEGAN—Mrs. Keegan & Co. the millinery firm on the west side of Main street, have rented the Tom Dattilo stand next door to Moeyon's and will soon move to their new location.

YOST—The enterprising harness firm of F. A. Yost & Co. has closed a trade with Mr. J. H. Anderson for a three years' lease on his building next door to the Kentucky office and will move with the new year. Waller & Rogers, now in the Anderson building, will move to the Elks building on Ninth street.

TWYMAN—Councilman J. K. Twyman has closed a trade with Mr. Joe F. Garnett to tear down the walls of the building wrecked by the flood on Nov. 20. Mr. Twyman was one of the most expert brick masons in the city in his younger days and will direct the work in person that is regarded so dangerous that the regular contractors would not touch it.

SPROUSE—Mr. Henry Sprouse, of Springfield, Tenn., will move to Hopkinsville January 1, with his family, to take a position as manager of the implement and buggy department for the Forbes Manufacturing Co. Mr. Sprouse comes highly recommended as a most valuable man for this class of work.

STONE—In the near future, probably in a week or two, Dr. J. E. Stone, of Herndon, will remove to the city to practice his profession. Dr. Stone is one of the most learned and popular physicians in the county and his coming to the city will add greatly to the already splendid array of practitioners here. Dr. Stone has lived at Herndon for about 15 years and has built up a very large practice in that section, where his many friends will learn with much regret of his intention to locate in this city. Dr. and Mrs. Stone have just returned from Chicago, where Dr. Stone went to take a post-graduate course.

COOPER—Mr. Garland Cooper, city assessor, who has since completing his work for the city, been employed in the local freight office of the L. & N. Railroad, has received a flattering offer to go to Nashville with the same company and will probably accept the offer. Mr. Cooper has many friends who would regret to see him leave Hopkinsville.

JAMES—Rev. W. C. James, pastor of the Russellville Baptist church and one of the most learned of the younger men of his denomination, has been called to the pastorate of the First Baptist church at Owensboro, Ky. Dr. James is about 35 years of age and prior to his admission to the ministry about five years ago was a professor in a Texas college.

FLACK—Mr. Lawson B. Flack, one of Hopkinsville's best known and most popular young men, has accepted the position of city bookkeeper for the Forbes Manufacturing Co. He takes the place of Mr. J. W. Stowe, who is now with Tandy & Fairleigh. Mr. Flack has for some years been with his father in the tobacco business. He has already entered upon his new duties.

HOLDEN—Mr. R. B. Holden, the singer who was sent by Mr. Townner from Chicago, to conduct the music for the Jenkins meeting, returned to Chicago last night with his wife, who had been with him for the last two weeks. Mr. Holden is a thoroughly capable man for this work and proved to be a very helpful and valuable assistant in the services.

BEVERLY NOTES.

Numerous News Items From South Christian.

Beverly, Ky., Dec. 13.—The children of Mr. N. A. Gray are well once more.

Swallow spring, on the Palmyra road, still seems to rise. The pike was supposed to be sinking here, and there are many dangerous ruts.

Miss Nona Word spent the past week with relatives on the Clarks-ville pike.

Misses Carrie Word and Gladys Bartley and Mr. Edgar Word spent Saturday and Sunday in Hopkinsville.

Mrs. E. C. Radford is very ill with la grippe.

Mr. Chas. C. Major and wife will go to housekeeping immediately after the departure of Mr. Harlow, with whom they have been boarding for several weeks.

Mrs. Charles Major and sister-in-law, Miss Ruth Major, left Sunday for a visit to Mrs. Major's mother, Mrs. Quarles, in Paducah.

Mr. B. W. Harlow and family will move to Hopkinsville this week. We are always sorry to lose a neighbor.

There will probably be preaching at the Grove next Sunday. Circle meeting will be held at the same place Dec. 29 and 30.

Both Liberty and Locust Grove were disappointed at not having services on the second Sunday. The day was a very rainy one.

Have you noticed the line of Xmas goods now at Beverly?

Have you caught on to the fact that "she" will be married Wednesday?

We are requested to announce for the Beverly school that there will be a Christmas entertainment at the school-house Friday afternoon next. This will be for the pupils chiefly. There will be a little change from the old method of having a Xmas tree, but they will have a large "Ferris Wheel," with presents on it; also a "Jack Horner Pie." Saturday night there will be a concert held at the same place, the program to begin at 7 o'clock, to which the public is cordially invited.

MRS. MCGEEHEE

Passes Away After a Long Illness.

Mrs. Georgia Ann McGehee, mother of Mr. Hugh C. McGehee, of Gracey, died Friday night at her home in Portsmouth, Va., after a long illness of Bright's disease. She was about sixty-five years old, a member of the Baptist church, and is survived by twelve children. Her husband, G. H. McGehee, died several years ago.

LIMB WASTED WITH ECZEMA

Obligated to Lie With Limbs Higher Than Head—Suffered Untold Agonies and Could Not Walk—Doctor Said It Was the Worst Case he Ever Saw.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA

"I received your letter asking for information about using the Cuticura Remedies. I used them for eczema. The doctor said it was the worst case he ever saw. It was on both limbs, from the knees to the ankles. We tried everything the doctors knew of, but the Cuticura Remedies did the most good. I was obliged to lie with my limbs higher than my head, for the pain was so terrible I could not walk. I suffered untold agonies. One limb wasted away a great deal smaller than the other, there was so much discharge from it. I found the Cuticura Remedies very soothing, and I still keep them in the house. I am very thankful to say that I am cured, and you can publish this statement if you wish. I found the Cuticura Remedies all that you say they are. I hope this cure will spare many years to make the Cuticura Remedies for the benefit of persons suffering from the worst of skin diseases, such as I had. I remain, yours respectfully, Mrs. Golding, Box 8, Ayr, Canada, June 6, 1905."

CURED OF CHAPPED HANDS

"I have used the Cuticura Soap for chapped hands, which I had been troubled with for about three years. I suffered intense pain and itching. I used nearly two boxes of the Cuticura Soap, and my hands were completely cured and have never troubled me since. I also took the Cuticura Resolvent for the blood at the same time. I can recommend the Cuticura Remedies to others suffering the same. Chas. Young, Plattville, Ontario, Canada, Sept. 29, 1905."

New Facts About Plant Life.
A recent scientific observation relating to plant life indicates that external factors may have an important bearing on the character of plants reproduced from seed aside from the qualities of the parent plant. Great stimulation of the reproductive organs immediately previous to the application of pollen has been noted to exert a profound influence on hereditary qualities, resulting in producing plants entirely different from the parent plant.

LOCAL UNION

Of Endeavor Societies Agreed On Sunday Night.

The union services of the Christian Endeavor societies at the Christian church Sunday night were largely attended. Three societies were represented—Cumberland, First Presbyterian and Christian. Rev. H. D. Smith presided. The meetings were addressed by Revs. Biddle, Bull and Smith. Miss Annie Smithson closed with a good talk on prison work by the local societies at Eddyville.

Before being dismissed it was determined by vote to then and there declare for the organization of a union of the three societies. A committee will prepare a constitution and by-laws for adoption at the next union meeting. Sunday night services took the place of the regular night services at the three churches.

Run Down By Train.

Nortonville, Ky., Dec. 15.—Mrs. J. K. Hammonds, an elderly lady, attempted to cross the track in front of L. & N. fast freight No. 59. Her foot slipped and she fell in front of the engine, which struck her, dislocating her hip and inflicting other injuries of a less serious nature. She will recover. Mrs. Hammonds is the wife of a farmer, residing three miles east of here.

WHY not sell your tobacco on Abernathy's "loose floor"? You will save from $1.50 to $2.00 per 100 expenses, including loss in weight.

WHY borrow money on your tobacco and pay interest when you can get cash for your tobacco on the loose floor?

WHY let other men attend to your business when you can do it yourself?

WHY not close out the cropper's interest on the loose floor, right now?

Will appreciate your business, H. H. ABERNATHY.

Advice from the Woodman!

When everything seems up a stump, And fortune is "agin" you, Don't pine. Spruce up—show the world You've got the timber in you.

Andrew Carnegie, Rockefeller, the Vanderbilts and Russell Sage saved a part of their income and put it away in the bank. When the time came for them to make investments they had something saved up. Money rules the world. Without money you are without friends. Open an account to-day.
